Want your cookie recipe published!?

I'm looking for individuals who are willing to share cookie recipes. Particularly ones that work well with cookie cutters, but I'm not picky. Is it a yummy recipe for cookies? I'll take it!

Note: MUST be your recipe (handed down through the family and written somewhere on a recipe card in grandma's recipe box is great), just can't be a scan of something from a magazine or book, please!

All recipes will be going into a little booklet and included with the Avacal Cookie Cutters (which tracking says should be almost to my doorstep, finally!!). Credit will be given to all contributors. Proceeds from the cookie cutters will be going towards supporting Grand TUA (an event dedicated to medieval topic education).
